Council Members expressed concerns that the County does need zoning.

Mr. Rick Thoennes, developer of the proposed high rise condominium on Lake Keowee addressed Council informing them that he too, was a resident of Oconee County who lived on the lake and he was concerned about the same issues they were. Mr. Thoennes also informed Council there would be no septic tanks, nor infrastructure (water & sewer) problems.

He also informed Council these condo's would be second homes for most of the residents, they would be constructed of noncombustible materials with a sprinkler system. Mr. Thoennes further informed Council that storm water would be filtered before it went into the lake, parking would be under the buildings and the goal of fire personnel would be to evacuate because very entities have the capacity to reach the top of a high rise building with a ladder truck.

Ms. Linda Lovely, Beacon Shores resident also addressed Council urging the adoption of a moratorium stating their belief that before a project such as this go forward that studies regarding public safety, infrastructure and the environmental affect should be put in place.

Discussion Regarding Possible High-Rise Condominiums on Lake Keowee Continued:

After considerable discussion, Mr. Moore read the following statement: Whereas, Lake Keowee has become an extremely desirable location for residential development as is evidenced by increased demand and increasing prices for lakefront property; and whereas virtually all of the Lake Keowee development has consisted of single family lots and homes except for a few small low rise multifamily developments of three or fewer stories in height and whereas, there has been no study of existing infrastructure such as the availability and suitability of roads, water, sewer and environmental impact, related to multifamily development on Lake Keowee and whereas time is needed in order to perform a land use study of lands on Lake Keowee.

Mr. Moore then made the following motion, seconded by Mr. Rinehart, approved 5 – 0 that Oconee County impose a six month moratorium on property within one thousand feet of the lakefront on Lake Keowee or any other lake in Oconee County for multifamily development of more than three stories in height when viewed from the lake with the intention to pursue zoning.

Council further instructed Mr. Rabun to begin the process of having studies completed to have zoning put in place in Oconee County.

After a brief discussion, Council instructed Mr. Rabun to proceed with the process of having this ordinance adopted.

Library:

Mr. Paul Johanson, Library Board Chair & Mr. John Adams, Library Board Member addressed Council regarding a feasibility study for the Seneca Library to contain the following:

- Site Feasibility Study
- Evaluate the structural design feasibility of renovating and adding to the existing Seneca Library
- Develop a program and schematic floor plan for a new library building with options on multi-story structures
- Determine how best to maximize the proposed site with regard to future growth, etc.
- Prepare initial construction budgets for each option to be used as a guideline to project approval by County Council

Mr. Rinehart asked that the scope include the following statement: Evaluate the structural and design feasibility of renovating existing downtown structures in harmony with long range development plans.

Mr. Crumpton expressed concerns regarding the construction of a new building to house the Seneca Library rather than an addition and renovation to the current building.

After considerable discussion, this matter was assigned to the Real Estate, Facilities & Land Management Committee for discussion and recommendation to full Council.

Energy & Fuel Conservation Report:

Mr. Rabun presented the attached energy and fuel conservation report which shows that the current trend of the four day work week, driving more efficiently, limited travel expense and changes in the thermostat settings shows a projected deficit of approximately $92,478 through the end of the 2005-06 fiscal year versus a previously projected $531,000.

Further, Mr. Rabun informed Council that sick leave records indicate an eleven percent cut in sick leave hours being taken by the employees.

There was much discussion regarding the pro's and con's of the four day work week versus the five day work week, the actual savings the County will experience as well as the negative and positive comments received by Council regarding the four day work week. Some of the Council Members requested that official action be taken at the next Council Meeting regarding this matter, however, after further discussion Mr. Ables reminded Council that they had previously, by consensus, committed to a six month trial basis of Mr. Rabun implementing the ten hour/four day work week and other cost saving measures to the County. Therefore, no action was taken to add this matter to the next Council agenda.
