- Attend and present to County Council meetings the impact, economically, of agriculture and refine goals in an attempt to attain a budget for the Ag. Board's activities from the County.

5. Discussion on 150th Anniversary events

Ms. Sewell is the Ag Board's representative to the Oconee County 150th Anniversary Committee. Ms. Sewell presented the wide range of activities being held in the County over the coming year. Ms. Sewell noted that she was able to add several agricultural related items to the "150 things you must do in 2018" brochure. Ms. Sewell noted some of the highlights such as the large Oconee Bell Flower sculpture being worked on to be placed in front of the Court House and the Gala being held in October. A further discussion was held as to what the Ag. Board could do to further the exposure of agriculture during the anniversary of the County. An idea was organized that the Ag. Board would facilitate a horse and wagon train going from farm to farm and inviting the public to each farm along the way. The idea still has to be fleshed out however the Board agrees it is a good idea.
